

Now more than ever,
family members have taken on the responsibility of caring for their older loved ones at home.

You may be eligible for financial assistance and support for the care you provide.

For over 45 years, ElderHouse has remained proudly committed to supporting older adults and their family caregivers. We understand the financial and emotional commitment it takes to care for aging parents or loved ones at home, making it possible for them to remain at home, involved in their community and avoid a nursing home.

ElderHouse is an accredited provider of Adult Family Living - a State of Connecticut program that provides tax-free monthly income and guidance to caregivers who's older loved ones qualify.

Benefits to Adult Family Living

The Adult Family Living program offers guidance and financial support to caregivers, helping them to succeed in providing the best care possible. Caregivers receive expert advice on managing daily tasks and a monthly tax-free stipend that compensates for the care and assistance they give to an older family member or friend.

- Allows older adults to age in place, as an alternative to nursing home placement
- Provides financial support to caregivers, helping to alleviate stress in managing expenditures
- Offers guidance and resources to caregivers, as part of a care management plan
- Offers daycare as an additional covered option

Requirements for Caregivers

- Must be 21 years of age or older
- Can be a family relative or friend, but not a spouse
- Must reside in the home of the recipient and be able to have 24-hour response capability to meet the needs of participant
- Must provide supervision and meet cognitive and behavioral needs of participant
- Must assist with activities of daily living
- Must work through an intermediary agency, such as ElderHouse

Requirements for Seniors

- Must be 65 years of age or older
- Need assistance with activities of daily living
- Must meet financial guidelines
(Older adult must qualify for CHCPE as a Medicaid or Category 2 recipient)

For more information, call (203) 847-1998
or visit elderhouse.org

Learn More About Our Adult Day Center

ElderHouse is a not-for-profit certified adult day center serving older adults in Norwalk and the surrounding communities. Our accredited medical model program provides older adults with days of social engagement, enjoyable activities, and personal attention to enhance health and well-being.

ElderHouse Adult Day Center
7 Lewis Street | Norwalk, CT 06851

